Ughele ta koboru sikolo pa paraemari sikulu (Ughele reading book for primary school students).

This reading book for primary school students introduces the letters of the Ughele alphabet, the numbers from 1 to 10, and concepts such as verbs, nouns and sentences. It also contains simple stories, riddles, poems and children's songs. The example sentences and illustrations were made by the students at Buruku Primary School and the stories, riddles and poems were written by Douglas Vaghi. The book was edited by Benedicte Haraldstad Frostad with the assistance of Hukari Navo and chief of the Ughele community, Vili Lianga. Printed copies have been provided free of charge by Radboud University in Nijmegen for Buruku Primary School, and an electronic version can be downloaded for free here.
